

WEDDING BELLS

WOODS—AMBROSE.

On Saturday last, a very pretty wedding was solemnised by Rev. S. A. Turner, in St. Barnabas' Church of England, at Fairfield, the contracting parties being Laurel, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ambrose, of Cuninghame Street, Fairfield, and William ("Bill"), youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Woods, York Street, Fairfield.

The bride was trocked in a charming white tailored ensemble of shadowed lace and carried a bouquet of white gladioli. She was given away by her brother, Mr. William Ambrose.

Mrs. V. Williams (sister of the bride) was the matron-of-honor.

Mr. Dave Woods acted as best man.

During the signing of the register, Mr. Glen Martyn, who presided at the organ, very effectively sang "Because."

At the conclusion of the ceremony the guests were entertained at the home of the bride's parents, where the usual toasts were honored in orthodox fashion.

Early in the evening the bride and bridegroom, showered with good wishes, left by car to spend their honeymoon at Manly.
